POLICY STATEMENT:

Prisoner Benefit Funds (PBFs) may be used to fund services, equipment and supplies which have a direct benefit to prisoners. Benefit Funds also may be established at Field Operations Administration (FOA) facilities for this purpose.

RELATED POLICIES:

04.01.150 Prisoner Housing Unit Representatives/Warden's Forum

POLICY:

GENERAL INFORMATION

- A. Each CFA institution shall have a PBF. The Warden of an institution to which a camp is annexed may authorize a separate PBF for the camp.
- B. The PBF shall be used only for the purposes and conditions set forth in this policy.

PBF COMMITTEE

- C. Each CFA institution shall have a PBF Committee comprised of two Warden's Forum members selected by the Warden's Forum and two staff members designated by the Warden. If a camp has a separate PBF, it shall have a separate PBF Committee comprised of two camp Warden's Forum members selected by the Warden's Forum and two staff members designated by the Warden. If a camp does not have a separate PBF, the Warden may increase the size of the institution's PBF Committee by one prisoner and one staff member to ensure that camp prisoner interests are adequately represented.
- D. The PBF Committee shall be responsible for recommending to the Warden which PBF expenditures should be approved, as authorized by this policy. If there is a separate camp PBF Committee, it shall make recommendations only for the camp PBF.

REVENUE

- E. State appropriated funds shall not be used to fund the PBF. Funds shall be derived only from the following sources:
 - 1. Profits from the prisoner store;
 - 2. Interest received from invested funds;
 - 3. Contributions from legitimate organizations or individuals, subject to the approval of the Warden. However, contributions shall not be accepted from a prisoner or an individual known to be related to a prisoner;
 - 4. Confiscated prisoner funds and postage, including metered envelopes;

5. Profits from vending machines, except those operated by employee clubs pursuant to PD 02.04.106 "Employee Clubs";
6. Deposit refunds for soft drink bottles and cans sold at the facility, except for those sold in areas accessible only to employees;
7. Employee club profits as set forth in PD 02.04.106;
8. Proceeds from hobbycraft sales, as set forth in PD 05.03.102 "Resident Hobbycraft Programs";
9. Profits from the sale of photo-tickets to visitors;
10. Profits from PBF-funded copy machines;
11. Fund raising activities approved pursuant to this policy.

FUND RAISING ACTIVITIES

- F. A PBF may be permitted to conduct fundraising activities through which funds may be solicited and collected from other prisoners at that facility.
- G. A PBF wanting to conduct fundraising activities must submit a written fundraising proposal to the Warden for review. The proposal must include the proposed use of the funds, a detailed description of the fundraising activity and supporting documentation if the funds are to be used for a charitable donation. If the Warden supports the fundraising activity, s/he shall forward it to the CFA Deputy Director or designee for final approval. The Warden shall be notified of the final decision and shall ensure the PBF is notified. If approved, the Warden shall designate a staff person to supervise the fundraising activity.

EXPENDITURES

- H. A PBF shall be used to fund only those services, equipment and supplies that provide a direct benefit to the prisoner population and are solely for prisoner use or which are contributions to charitable organizations approved by the Warden or designee. The PBF shall be used to fund postage provided to indigent prisoners pursuant to PD 04.02.120 "Indigent Prisoners" and legal postage loaned to prisoners pursuant to PD 05.03.118 "Prisoner Mail". The PBF shall not be used to fund an activity or program that is necessary to institutional operations. Expenditures may include, but are not limited to, the following:
 1. Office supplies and materials for prisoner organizations approved pursuant to PD 05.03.100 "Prison Programs and Organizations" and religious groups approved pursuant to PD 05.03.150 "Religious Beliefs and Practices of Prisoners";
 2. Approved self-help programs such as hobbycraft, Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) and religious activities;
 3. Prisoner compensation for verified property losses where the prisoner was not negligent;
 4. Escort costs for prisoner funeral or sick bed visits, approved pursuant to PD 04.04.140 "Funeral and Sick Bed Visits";
 5. Recreational equipment and supplies (e.g., athletic equipment);
 6. Special maintenance and capital outlay projects;

7. Cable/satellite television services; however, premium movie channels (e.g., HBO, Showtime, Cinemax) shall not be funded;
8. Entertainment events in accordance with PD 05.03.104 "Leisure Time Activities".
- I. Except for postage provided to indigent prisoners and loaned legal postage, all expenditures from the PBF require approval of the Warden. The Warden shall consider only those expenditures recommended by majority vote of the PBF Committee. The Warden shall ensure that the PBF Committee is advised whether recommended expenditures have been approved or denied. All of a institution's PBF expenditures, including for legal postage, shall be reported in summary form to the prisoner population.
- J. Accounting procedures for the PBF shall be consistent with generally accepted accounting principles. PBF revenue and expense statements and balance sheet reports shall be prepared monthly by the appropriate business office. An annual advisory budget for the PBF shall be developed by the business office to be used as a guide for projected revenue and expenditures. A year-end financial report reflecting the financial status of the PBF also shall be prepared by the business office. A copy of the year end report shall be submitted to the Administrator of the Bureau of Fiscal Management, Administration and Programs (A&P).
- K. The institution's administrative officer shall ensure that purchasing and expenditure guidelines for appropriated funds established by the Department of Management and Budget (DMB) are followed for all PBF purchases and expenditures at his/her respective institution, except that purchases shall be processed by the appropriate business office. The Warden shall ensure that a copy of applicable guidelines is available for review by the PBF Committee upon request.

BENEFIT FUNDS AT FOA FACILITIES

- L. FOA Regional Administrators may establish Benefit Funds at corrections centers and Technical Rule Violation Centers (TRVs) in their respective regions. Revenue shall be derived only from those sources identified in Paragraph E.
- M. Each TRV and corrections center Benefit Fund shall be overseen by the corrections center or TRV Manager/Supervisor. Expenditures from the Benefit Fund require approval of the appropriate Manager/Supervisor and FOA Regional Administrator. Only expenditures identified in Paragraph H shall be approved.
- N. Accounting procedures for the Benefit Fund shall be consistent with generally accepted accounting principles. Benefit Fund revenue and expense statements and balance sheet reports shall be prepared quarterly by the appropriate business office. A year-end financial report reflecting the financial status of the Benefit Fund also shall be prepared by the business office. A copy of the year end report shall be submitted to the Administrator of the Bureau of Fiscal Management, A&P.
- O. FOA Regional Administrators shall ensure that purchasing and expenditure guidelines for appropriated funds established by DMB are followed for all Benefit Fund purchases and expenditures in their respective regions, except that purchases shall be processed by the appropriate business office.

OPERATING PROCEDURES

- P. The FOA Deputy Directors and Wardens shall ensure that procedures are developed as necessary to implement requirements set forth in this policy directive; this shall be completed within 60 calendar days after the effective date of the policy directive. This requirement includes ensuring that their existing procedures are revised or rescinded, as appropriate, if inconsistent with policy requirements or no longer needed. Facility procedures shall not conflict with procedures issued by the Director or Deputy Director.
